

SUPERVISOR

RAPHAEL - The Jewish Counselling Service currently offers counselling to individuals and couples in London and the Home Counties.

We are seeking to appoint an experienced supervisor to be responsible for the provision of fortnightly supervision to a group of four counsellors.

Rate: £64 per 1½ hour session or £85 for 2 hours (length of supervision sessions depends on the number of clients held within the group).

Supervision takes place in the consulting room of the supervisor which needs to be in the North West London area. Candidates must be Psychoanalytic or Psychodynamic in orientation, BACP, BPC or UKCP registered, have more than five years post qualification experience and considerable supervisory experience, particularly in enabling counsellors to explore and work with unconscious processes, and preferably have a recognised supervision qualification.

Application form and job specification are available from:
